I. Introduction to Historical Era
II. Judicial Power and Constitutional Authority
III. Powers of the National Government
IV. Federalism
V. Separation of Powers

HS: add Limits of Government per se? – rights and liberties, shows up here as negative space
Comparative systems
Constitutionalism

9/2 Introduction

9/4 American Constitutionalism (3-26)
five questions:
“What is a constitution?
What purposes does a constitution serve?
How should constitutions be interpreted?
How should constitutional disputes be resolved?
How are constitutions ratified, changed, and repudiated?

9/9 SKIP Colonial chapter – substitute:
problems of democratic republic:
representation
equality liberty
state and society
answers – liberalism, republicanism, “police”, Calvinism
readings:
Kramnick
Graber excerpt?
rogers smith, multiple traditions
Richard Dagger, Liberal Virtues

9/11 Founding Era: 1776-1788 – part I,
I. Intro., 49-56
II. Judicial Power and Constitutional Authority, 56-64
9/16 Founding Era: 1776-1788, Part II
III. Powers of National Gov't. 64-78
IV. Federalism, 79-83
V. Separation of Powers, 83-84, 88-91 (Fed’ist 51, 70, 71)

9/18 Early Nationalist Era, 1789-1828—Chapt. Four, Part One
I. Intro. 93-100
II. Judicial Power and Constitutional Authority, 101-18

9/23 Early Nationalist Era—Chapt. Four, Part Two, 118-56
III. Powers of the National Government, 118-37, 142-45 (Missouri Compromise), 149-53 (Gibbons v Ogden), 153-56 (spending and internal improvements)

9/25 Early Nationalist Era—Chapt. Four, Part Three, 156-82
IV. Federalism, 156-66
V. Separation of Powers, 166-70 (general discussion), 173-76 (Executive privilege), 176-77 (veto), 177-79 (power to execute laws), 179-82 (elections)

9/30 Jacksonian Era, 1829-1860—Chapt. Five, Part One, 185-221
I. Intro., 185-93
II. Judicial Power and Constitutional Authority, 193-200
III. Powers of the National Government, 200-206 (Bank Veto), 206-07 and 208-11 (Fugitive Slave Act, Prigg), 213-14 (slavery in the territories), 216-21 (Dred Scott)

10/2 Jacksonian Era—Chapt. Five, Part Two, 221-47
IV. Federalism, 221-33
V. Separation of Powers, 233-34, 240-43 (war powers), 243-47 (veto)

10/7 Secession, Civil War, and Reconstruction: 1861-1876—Chapt. Six, Part One, 249-76
I. Introduction, 249-51
II. Judicial Power and Constitutional Authority, 251-62
III. Powers of the National Government, 262-76

10/9 Secession, Civil War, and Reconstruction—Chapt. Six, Part Two, 277-316
IV. Federalism, 277-82 (secession), 290-95 (Texas v. White and the passage of the XIVth Amendment)
V. Separation of Powers, 295-316

10/14 The Republican Era: 1877-1932—Chapt. Seven, Part One
I. Introduction, 319-29
II. Judicial Power and Constitutional Authority, 329-32, SKIP 333-42, Slaughterhouse Cases, excerpt available on course moodle), 342-44 (T. Roosevelt, Taft), 344-45 (Frothingham v. Mellon)

10/16 The Republican Era—Chapt. Seven, Part Two, 347-89
III. Powers of the National Government, 347-67 (Civil Rights Cases, commerce), 376-77 (limits of taxing power), 377-79 (treaty power), 379-81 (military draft), 381-89 (Insular Cases)

10/21 The Republican Era—Chapt. Seven, Part Three, 389-415
IV. Federalism, 389-402
V. Separation of Powers, 402-15

10/23 Special Readings: What are the Limits of States’ Powers?
handout: incorporation, police powers, “liberty” vs. “rights”
Lochner v. New York, Peirce v. Society of Sisters, Muller v Oregon

I. Introduction, 417-25
II. Judicial Power and Constitutional Authority, 425-42, 444-49 (Flast v Cohen),

10/30 The New Deal and Great Society Era—Chapt. 8, Part Two
Baker v Carr
SKIP 449-56 (Baker v Carr—replace with version on course moodle), 456-58 (incorporation)
11/4 The New Deal and Great Society Era—Chapt. 8, Part Three
   III. Powers of the National Government, 458-88

11/6 The New Deal and Great Society Era—Chapt. 8, Part Four
   IV. Federalism, 488-90
   V. Separation of Powers, 490-512

   I. Introduction
   II. Judicial Power, 513-30

11/13 Liberalism Divided—Chapt. Nine, Part Two
   III. Powers of National Government
   IV. Federalism
   V. Separation of Powers, 530-58

   I. Introduction, 563-68
   II. Judicial Power and Constitutional Authority, 568-82
   III. Powers of National Government, 583-87

11/20 The Reagan Era—Chapt. Ten, Part Two
   IV. Federalism, 587-94
   V. Separation of Powers, 596-613

   I. Intro, 615-19
   II. Judicial Power and Constitutional Authority, 619-37

12/2 Contemporary Issues—Chapt. Eleven, Part Two
   III. Powers of the National Government, 637-57

12/4 Contemporary Issues—Chapt. Eleven, Part Three
IV. Federalism, 657-76

12/9  Contemporary Issues—Chapt. Eleven, Part Four
      V. Separation of Powers, 676-714

12/11  Conclusion